

PARTICIPANT & LEADER GUIDE

Fifth Annual

DULANEY DISTRICT

Towson Merit Badge University

& Service Weekend

September 23-24, 2017

We are excited that you have joined us for our Fifth Annual Merit Badge University & Service Weekend at Towson University! Last year, the Towson area Zero Prostate Race raised over $500,000 for prostate cancer research, education, free screenings, early detection, and advocacy. Over the past 10 years, the Race has already raised over $3,000,000! Our event provides an atmosphere and opportunity for Scouts to earn a merit badge and has already given well over 4,000 community service hours to the Race.

There is a Dulaney District Campfire run by the Communications Merit Badge. Each Merit Badge group will performing (skits, songs and other shenanigans). Bring your best ideas.

BRING YOUR CHAIR.

BRING YOUR SATURDAY LUNCH IF YOU DID NOT PURCHASE ONE DURING REGISTRATION (CHECK YOUR REGISTRATION RECEIPT)

The service component of this weekend will include setting up for the Zero Prostate Cancer Challenge 5k Race and assisting with the race including ushering, refreshments, breakdown and other requested jobs. Because of our commitment to the Race, Scouts that attend this Event MUST attend both Saturday and Sunday. Saturday only attendance is not permitted!

A limited number of Scouts will be running / walking in the races. The Scouts that want to do so should visit our MBU registration page and register for the race and forward the necessary release form.

We will need adult volunteers during the event to walk as chaperones for the Merit Badges, as well as security during the event. Chaperones will be responsible for headcounts during the Merit Badges. Provisional Scoutmasters will be responsible for headcounts for the rest of the weekend after Merit Badges. At registration, all scouts and leaders will be given wristbands for identification and safety. If you see someone without a wristband, please notify MBU Staff immediately

A. FOOD

Cooking and cook fires are NOT permitted. The only food you should bring is YOUR LUNCH, snacks, water and something for the District Friendship Crackerbarrel on Saturday night.
