There's a Patch for That!

How to earn the BSA 2017 Solar Eclipse patch

1. Locate a site suitable for viewing the eclipse. Search Google for "eclipse viewing" and the name of your city or town to find events near you.
 - See the exact path and precise timings at this NASA site.
2. Describe how to safely view the eclipse.
 - Never look directly at the sun. Instead, look directly at these tips from NASA on how to view the eclipse safely.
3. Discuss with your group what you saw and felt during the eclipse.
 - Post your comments and eclipse photos on social media using the hashtag #BSAEclipse2017.
4. Do the following:
 - Cub Scouts: Discuss what a solar eclipse is with your leaders.
 - Boy Scouts and Varsity Scouts: Draw a diagram of the positions of the moon, earth, and sun to show how the solar eclipse occurs.
 - Venturers: Research Sir Arthur Stanley Eddington's 1919 experiment and discuss how it confirmed Einstein's theory of general relativity.
5. Ask your unit leader to buy the 2017 Solar Eclipse patch.
 - You'll find it at your local council service center.

Themes for September

Point of the Law: Courteous

Theme: How the West Was Fun

A brave heart and a COURTEOUS tongue. They shall carry thee far through the jungle, manling. -

Rudyard Kipling

Ideas for “How the West Was Fun” from the Pack Meeting Guide for September 2017 (available online)

Give Me a Place

Tune: “Home on the Range”

Oh give me a place
Where they all know my face
And the Cub Scouts and Webelos play.
Where never is heard a discouraging word,
And Scouts are all courteous all day.

Here, here at Cub Scouts
Join the Wolves, Bears, and Tigers today.
And, like Webelos Scouts, there is never a doubt
That you will be welcome to stay.

Pass the Corn

Materials: One corncob of dried Indian corn for each team

Instructions: Divide Scouts into equal teams. At the signal, each team passes the corncob from Scout to Scout without using any hands. If the corncob touches the ground or hands are used, that team must restart the passing from the beginning of their line.

Cowpoke Applause: (Raise hand in the air, as if waving hat.) “Whoopee!”

Crazy September Celebrations:

- All American Breakfast Month, National Honey Month
- National Waffle Week: Sept. 3-9th
- National Clean Hands Week: Sept. 17-23rd
- International Talk Like A Pirate Day: Sept. 19th
- Hobbit Day: Sept. 22nd
