Saturday, March 12, 2022

Check in and Vendor Tables Open 7:15 to 7:45 am

Opening Ceremony 8:00 to 8:15 am

Session 1 8:20 - 9:10 am

Course Number	Description
BCS106	Coaching Leaders In this course, the commissioner will become familiar with the new Coaching Model and how to use it to better serve your units.
CED118	Eating Well on the Trail It doesn't have to be oatmeal and granola! If you give it some thought and plan ahead, the trail meals can be exciting, entertaining, and engaging!
CED125	Basic Knots (2 Sessions) Learn how to tie and how to teach your Scouts to tie the knots they need for advancement. Learn the difference between an underhand loop and an overhand loop and why it makes a difference.
CED144	Introduction to the Principles of LNT A detailed introduction to the seven principles of Leave No Trace. The principles are the same no matter where we go or what we do in the outdoors, but we interpret them differently when we're in an established campground (frontcountry) versus when we're in the backcountry, such as a backpacking trip on the Appalachian Trail or at Philmont. Application of the principles in both contexts will be discussed. This course is a must for leaders new to the BSA program and a good refresher for experienced leaders as well.
CED213	BSA CyberChip A new facet to the protection of our youth, BSA has established the "CyberChip" an annual electronic media certification for safe use of all social media by Scouts. This session will enable adults to teach the CyberChip certification to Boy Scouts and Venturing Scouts. CyberChip includes all social media (Internet, cell phones, gaming devices, etc.). CyberChip is required for several new Merit Badges, and starting January, 2016, required for the Star rank. While completing the CyberChip, Scouts will learn benefits &amp; dangers of social media, develop standards with their parents, Scout Leaders and/or Crew Advisors.
CED244	Trek Leader and Advanced Outdoor Leader Training Outdoor treks provide the excitement that many older Scouts and Venturers are looking for. With this added excitement comes the responsibility to pay close attention to every detail. Your planning must anticipate weather changes, the itinerary's difficulty, and crew dynamics. Trek Leader Planning and Advanced Outdoor Skills is designed to help Scouting leaders prepare for a trek. Participants will leave prepared to teach other Scouters the outdoor skills needed for extended-stay outdoor activities.

Class Schedule by Session

CED262	Advanced Backcountry Leave No Trace Techniques Do you know what a bear cannister is? Or a mound fire? Or a poop tube? You probably never had to use any of these camping at Broad Creek, but if you're going out into the wilderness, you'll want to be prepared. This session highlights a number of advanced techniques to minimize your impact when going on outings in the backcountry.
CED271	Introduction to Diversity, Equity and Inclusion New for 2022: Introduction to diversity, equity and inclusion and how it relates to the BSA programs. This course aims to give scouters a solid foundation in the basics of DEI including definitions, bias, and privilege. This course is valuable for all Scouters who wish to gain a solid foundation in DEI.
CED317	Difficult People/Difficult Interactions New for 2022: We have all been there. You find yourself dealing with a difficult situation time and time again. You begin to dread dealing with people, or at least certain people! This course will provide you with some insights for dealing with those difficult situations.
CSP116A	Lion Cubs for Kindergarteners Learn more about the fun, hands-on activities in the Lion program for kindergarten age youth that introduces them and their family to Scouting. Based on the 10 Purposes of Cub Scouting and Cub Scouting's Core Values, Lions is the entry point into Scouts USA. Come learn about and share your experiences with the Lions program to make this introduction to Cub Scouting a roaring success.
CSP212ABC	Mastering Cubmastering - 3 Sessions Feeling "in over your head" as a new Cubmaster? Or are you an experienced Cubmaster just wanting to learn proven techniques to lead your pack to greatness? Come join an experienced Cubmaster to take a deep dive into your role as "leader of the Pack" and learn how to make your Pack rock and roll. This program will discuss how Pack committees can successfully balance workloads of leaders and provide valuable information on running a pack, including: planning; proven in-school recruitment techniques, induction ceremonies, pack traditions, well-executed campouts, pinewood derbies, Blue &amp; Golds, and working with parents.
CSP301	Successful Recruiting &amp; Retaining of Cub Scouts A continuous flow of new Cub Scouts keeps your Pack alive and teaches families the enjoyment of Scouting. Learn how to maximize those recruitment materials and other techniques to attract and retain youth – a must for the health of every Pack!
DCS501/DOC604A	Selecting a Thesis / Project Topic This course will introduce you to the concept of a thesis or project and will provide an overview of the application and doctoral degree process. Required for Doctoral Degree.
DCS502	Limiting the Scope of the Topic This course will provide you with ideas on reducing your thesis/project topic to a workable size. The course will also help you get ideas for your thesis or project research. Required for Doctoral Degree.
DSP101	Function of the District Committee This course will introduce the four functions of district operation, suggest structures for carrying out these functions and examine the role of the District Key 3.
DSP304	District Cub Scout Day Camp The participant will learn the aims of the Cub Scout Day Camp and how to put on a well-planned program.
MCS304	Service to Units at Risk

Class Schedule by Session

	The purpose of the course is to give some tools to help identify units that are at risk as well as tools to approach a unit at risk where there is minimal information, and you are there to revive or save the unit. This course will show how to recognize the signs of a unit in crises and develop the skills to resolve the issues.
SBP108	The Scoutmaster, Troop Organization &amp; Membership Learn about the qualities that should be expected of a Scoutmaster. Explore what the Scoutmaster should be, know and do. Learn the structure of the troop, including key youth leadership positions. Find out about a troop's support functions and the responsibilities of adult leadership positions. Discuss the ways that creating new members is good for both the youth and scout troops.
SBP201	Scouts Interfaith Service This session will include information on how to develop and deliver a Scouts' Interfaith Service.
SBP210	Inspiring Success in Youth Leaders through Effective Mentoring In order to effectively inspire and mentor youth leaders, adult leaders must first have a passion for the Order and an infectious energy and enthusiasm for working with young people. Inspiring and mentoring starts with us. In this session we will discuss the difference between coaching and mentoring, the uniqueness of the millennial generation, and how to create a strong mentoring environment. We will cover traits of effective mentors as well as mentoring best practices.
SND220	Camping Considerations for Scouts with Disabilities New for 2022! This presentation provides leaders, parents, and Scouts with key planning and logistical considerations prior to and during camping trips in order to create a positive outdoor adventure for all Scouts, including those with different abilities.
VSP101A/CED220	Here's Venturing Introduction to the mission of Venturing, its aims &amp; methods, and unique place in the Scouts BSA. Youth-led aspects of the program are emphasized, including District and Council Venturing Officers' Associations. This course is valuable for all Scouters who wish to learn more about the Venturing program.
VSP199B	Venturers 1st Year Leadership track (for Youth) Facilitated by officers and members of the Council Venturing Officers' Association, the Bachelor's in Venturing Leadership is the first formal opportunity for youth to participate in the University of Scouting program. Participants spend the whole day together in their own unique sequence of classes emphasizing skills to help them be better Venturing Crew officers, members, and leaders, and completing advancement training requirements. Highlights from the curriculum are: How to plan a program at the crew and district levels, including how to choose a program, identifying and implementing a theme, selecting a location and managing logistics, basic budgeting, and promotion. Practical exercises with guided feedback are a key component of these segments. The Venturing Officer's Association, including opportunities for involvement at the district, council, area, regional, and national levels. Leadership Opportunities Outside the Crew.

VSP316	Conducting Leadership Skills for Crews            Conducted at the Crew level, Leadership Skills for Crews (LSC) is the first step in the training continuum for Venturing youth leaders. Ideally, the course is run annually for the Crew by senior youth who have previously taken the course, although in Crews with less experience it is often run by the adult Advisors. This class will educate Venturing leaders on how to implement the syllabus and establish youth-led training as an integral part of the Crew's annual program. This course will be taught in conjunction with part of the Venturing Youth Master's Track, and will incorporate updates from ILSC that were released by National on Dec 3. This course will be taught in conjunction with part of the Venturers 2nd Year Leadership Track.
VSP399B1	Venturers 2nd Year Leadership track (for Youth) Part 1            For youth who have completed the Venturers 1st Year Leadership track, the Venturers 2nd Year Leadership track offers advanced curriculum to enable them to support their Crews' programs. The focus is on preparation for the Pathfinder and Summit Ranks. Topics covered include Crew administration, advanced training, personal development, and advanced program planning. This course is facilitated by officers and members of the Council Venturing Officers' Association. Venturers age 18 or older may also take this track without having completed the Venturers 1st Year Leadership track.

Session 2 - 9:15 – 10:00 am

Course Number	Description
BCS105	Resolving Common Unit Issues Build your knowledge of the early warning signs of a unit in danger of failing and discuss how to support problem-solving of some common issues in this course.
CED154	Heritage &amp; Symbology of Scouting Scouting is rich in tradition and history. This class will shed light on how the implementation of today's Scouting program was built on the foundations laid by Lord Baden Powell over 100 years ago and implemented in America by James West in the early 20th century. We will explore how the methods of today's Scouting program seek to achieve the aims of Scouting, which were built on these traditions and history. A deeper understanding of Scouting traditions and history will help you in your own understanding of the Scouting program, and improve your ability to explain the Scouting program to others.
CED189	Wilderness Survival Both Scouting and Venturing support Wilderness Survival programs. Review the basics of WS and understand how it differs between programs. Learn how to use it as a tool to prepare the younger Scouts for high adventure and to challenge the older Scouts, which boosts retention, facilitating rank advancement, and deeper exposure to the 3 aims of Scouting.
CED225	Outdoor Ethics Games – (2 Sessions) Games are the best way to incorporate Outdoor Ethics activities seamlessly into your unit's program! Spend two sessions playing more than a half-dozen Outdoor Ethics games led by an experienced facilitator.
